*(ii) Permanent employees shall be senior to temporary employees.

- (b) Where the qualifications of an employee are sufficient, seniority will be the governing factor in determining preference for promotions and requested transfers.
- (c) Where the qualifications of an employee are sufficient, both parties recognize that job security shall increase in proportion to the length of service, therefore in the event of layoff the following provision shall apply. Employees who have the least seniority shall be the first employees laid off. When the Employer determines that a recall is necessary, the employee with the greatest seniority shall be the first recalled.

27.02 Employees shall have the right to grieve against unfair treatment on promotions, requested transfers, layoff and recalls. Such grievances shall commence at level 2 of the grievance procedure.

- 27.03 The following conditions shall result in loss of seniority for an employee:

 - (b) they are dismissed and not reinstated;
 - (c) they have been laid off in excess of eighteen (18) consecutive months.

- (c) All permanent vacancies will be posted for a minimum of seven (7) days. The Employer will identify a start date for the new position of not less than six (6) weeks from the date of posting. The successful candidate will have forty-eight (48) hours to confirm, in writing, with the Employer that they will report to work in the position on the identified start date; failure to do so will mean that they have withdrawn their application and the Employer will offer the job to the second successful applicant. The second successful applicant, and each applicant thereafter, will also be given forty-eight (48) hours to confirm, in writing, that they will report to work in the position on the identified start date, failure to do so will mean that they have withdrawn their application and entitle the Employer to make the offer to the third successful applicant, and so on until the list of successful applicants is exhausted. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the permanent vacancy is in Labrador, the successful candidate and each candidate thereafter will have seventy-two (72) hours to confirm in writing, with the Employer that they will report to work in the position on the identified start date; failure to do so will mean that they have withdrawn their application and the Employer will offer the job to the next successful applicant. The Superintendent may, with the agreement of the Union, extend the confirmation period beyond the time periods noted above when deemed necessary and appropriate in the circumstances.

- all regular seasonal employees are required to participate in the plan from their first day of active employment. During periods of layoff, provided they do not work for another Employer during such layoff, regular seasonal employees have the option to continue coverage provided the Employer is duly notified prior to the commencement of the layoff. Coverage will not continue unless a “Continuation of Coverage” form is completed, signed, and given to your Group Plan Administrator prior to you leave.
- all casual employees working a minimum of 50% of the normal working hours for their job classification in the previous calendar year are required to participate in the following policy year (April 1 to March 31). Eligibility for casual employees is reviewed on an annual basis.
- employees who elect early retirement will continue to be insured under the program as if active employees. Group life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance benefits will be calculated on the annual superannuation benefits. Optional Long Term Disability and Critical Illness will terminate. Basic Life and Basic AD&D coverage will be reduced on the first of the month following the date of retirement or age 65, whichever occurs first.
- for retirees, upon attainment of age 65, all basic life and optional life insurance policies terminate. At age 65, if you have been insured for a period of five years immediately prior to your 65th birthday, you may be eligible for a reduced paid-up life insurance policy on the first of the month following attainment of age 65, which will remain in force throughout your lifetime. You may also be eligible to continue your supplementary health and group travel insurance plans on a 50/50 cost-shared basis.

- In the event of your death, your surviving spouse and any insurable dependent children, who on the date of your death was insured under the plan, may have the option of continuing in the group insurance program.

EMPLOYEE AND RETIREE RESPONSIBILITY

You should note that you have responsibilities to fulfill. You are responsible for the following:

- For ensuring that you have applied for the coverage you wish to have for yourself on your enrolment forms and your dependents within the appropriate time frames.
- To change your coverage from single to family within the appropriate time frame. If the coverage is not changed within 31 days of acquiring your first eligible dependent an Evidence of Insurability on Dependents is required for approval.
- To add a spouse to this plan in the event that he or she loses coverage under another plan within a 31 day period following the loss of coverage to avoid having to provide medical evidence.
- For examining payroll deductions for each pay period for all group insurance benefits. Examples would include family versus single coverage and optional benefit premiums particularly when you have requested changes in coverage and at the annual renewal date when the premiums are adjusted. This will ensure accuracy and allow for corrections on a timely basis. Coverage details can be confirmed through pay stubs, your plan administrator, employers online benefit statements (where available), and the insurance carrier (their website and their toll free number)
- For amending your coverage to delete any coverage you no longer require. Contributions which you have paid are not refundable if they were consistent with the application on file.
- For effecting conversion of the coverage eligible to be converted upon the earlier of termination of employment or at age 65.
- For accurately completing the necessary forms required for continuing benefits while on maternity leave, sick leave, special leave without pay, retirement, etc. It is extremely important these arrangements be made prior to commencing eligible leave. For continuation of group life and health insurance while on temporary lay-off or on unpaid leave you are responsible for the payment of the full premium amount (Employer/employee contributions) and failure to remit will result in termination of coverage. You are also responsible for the payment of the full premium amount (Employer/employee contributions) if you are a casual/hourly employee and you maintain benefits during a pay period when you have not worked and have not received pay. Failure to remit premiums will result in the termination of coverage.

- For providing appropriate claim information necessary to process LTD and/or Waiver of Premium claims as well as to ensure notice of claim/proof of claim where necessary has been provided within appropriate time frames as required under the contract.
- For providing appropriate medical information necessary to add a dependant as functionally impaired to continue their coverage beyond the age a dependant would otherwise terminate based on contract guidelines
- For completing the appropriate forms accurately, completely, and within applicable timeframes for such things as change of address, addition or deletion of a dependent, and other significant matters that can change or otherwise affect your coverage.
- To register overage student dependents between age 21 and 25 at the beginning of each school year. Failure to do so may impact coverage.
- Reviewing the online employee benefit booklet, contacting the insurance carrier and/or your organization's plan administrator to ensure you have a sound knowledge of the benefits available, extent of coverage, eligibility criteria, exclusions, restrictions, medical underwriting requirements, conversion options, continuation of benefits, predeterminations and other important requirements of the program.
- Providing proof of the purchase of pension service that may reduce LTD premiums. Premiums will only be adjusted when the plan administrator has been notified and received verification despite the date the purchase may have occurred.
- For notifying your plan administrator if the deletion of an overage dependant requires a change in your premiums from family to single coverage.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDINGRe: Nurses Committee

The parties acknowledge that the Registered Nurses' Union Newfoundland and Labrador (RNUNL) have indicated that they have issues of concern unique to Nurses who live and work in Labrador and that the RNUNL will attempt to address these concerns through a committee which will be established subsequent to these negotiations.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDINGRe: Labrador Benefits Agreement - Interpretation

In an effort to clarify the interpretation of certain items contained in the Labrador Benefits Agreement the parties agree to the following:

- 1) Article 4.2(b) refers to employees who terminate employment, (i.e. are not on layoff status and do not have recall rights). These employees have their Travel Allowance paid out based on the hours worked in the current year and it shall be paid out at the rate in effect on the date employment is terminated.
- 2) For the purposes of Article 4.4 it is agreed that an employee may refuse to claim the employee benefit if it is to their benefit to have their spouse claim them as a dependant. Employees who exercise this option will not be entitled to any portion of the Employee Travel Allowance. It is incumbent on the employee to communicate this choice to their respective Employer(s).
- 3) Notwithstanding Schedule A, the following employee shall be entitled, on a without prejudice basis, to the rates applicable to Mud Lake as long as they remain within the employ of their current Employer and continue to permanently reside in Mud Lake:
Vyann Kerby, Health Labrador Corporation

This agreement is effective from April 1, 2013 and shall expire upon the renewal of the Labrador Benefits Agreement expiring March 31, 2016.

- 4) For the purposes of clarification and in accordance with Article 3.1 (Labrador Allowance), Article 4.1 (Travel Allowance) and Article 9.1 (Definitions), benefits are applicable for the fiscal year (April 1 to March 31) in which a dependent reaches 18 years of age or 24 years of age, if the dependent is in full time attendance at a school or post-secondary institution. Full time attendance shall be determined by the educational institution in which a dependent is registered.

For example:

If a dependent reaches 18 years of age on January 1, 2011 and is no longer enrolled as a full time student in a post secondary institution, they would be eligible for the travel benefit payable April 15, 2011.

Mr. Trevor King
 Secretary/Treasurer
 NAPE
 P.O. Box 8100
 St. John's, NL A1B 3M9

Dear Mr. King:

Re: Issues Surrounding Temporary Correctional Officers

The following outlines items of agreement between the Employer and the Union with regard to the application of temporary employee benefits.

1. Temporary Employee Seniority

- *(a) Subject to 27.01(a), seniority for temporary employees shall be recorded in service with the Employer in hours for each regular hour worked to a maximum of 2,184 per year. For purposes of recall seniority lists shall be posted each three (3) months from the date of signing of this Agreement for a one (1) year period and posted each six (6) months thereafter and seniority as contained on the posted lists shall be used for recall purposes. Permanent employees shall be senior to temporary employees.

Employees will have fourteen (14) days from the date of posting of seniority lists to contest the posted seniority. Employees are required to provide supporting documentation with adequate explanation at the time of contesting their seniority. Should no documentation be provided, no action will be taken on the employee's seniority and the posted seniority will remain as posted.

All investigations into contested seniority shall be completed and any necessary adjustments made within a further seven (7) days.

After any resulting adjustments are made (three weeks after posting), the adjusted list shall be used for recall purposes.

- (b) Temporary employment opportunities for block placement (one week or more) will be offered to temporary employees in descending order of seniority on a province-wide basis.
- (c) Temporary employment for less than a week will be offered to temporary employees as determined by seniority on an institutional basis.

- (d) Once a block has been accepted, the temporary employee shall be required to complete the assigned block before being offered any other temporary employment. Should a temporary employee refuse a block of work that employee shall not be called for other available blocks during the week being scheduled until all other temporary employees on the seniority list have been called for work. After all employees available for work have been called the employer may call those who formerly refused blocks.
- (e) A temporary employee cannot be forced from the Island portion of the Province to the Labrador Correctional Centre for less than six (6) weeks of work. Conversely, a temporary cannot be forced from the Labrador Correctional Centre to the Island portion of the Province for less than six (6) weeks of work.
- (f) Subject to mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, the temporary employee may accept another block to alleviate any extra cost incurred by the temporary employee provided another block becomes available whereby that temporary employee can access that block in their seniority.
- (g) On Thursdays, temporary employees will be offered assignments of available work in order of seniority. Blocks include (minimum 36 hours per week, maximum 48 hours per week):
- regular slots
 - blocks of work that correspond to slots
 - irregular slots - to be filled including where scheduled employees request time off
- The Employer will endeavour to maximize the number of block assignments for temporary employees.
- (h) Notwithstanding Clause (g) above, the Employer may call temporary employees for individual shifts, should the need arise.
- (i) Where an employee is recalled to or offered a position which has a gender requirement, all employees who will be negatively affected due to not being the gender required shall be credited with the same amount of seniority earned by the employee recalled or appointed to a position.

*2. Application of Overtime

If temporary employees are required to work in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or eighty (84) hours in a fortnight, subject to Appendix I, Article 11, overtime will be paid. If two blocks of forty-eight (48) hours in a fortnight are available for a particular temporary employee the employer will arrange for the temporary employee to be scheduled off for one of the twelve (12) hours and will arrange for a second temporary employee to work that twelve (12) hour shift where deemed necessary by the Employer. If there is no other temporary available, and if there is overtime to be incurred as a result, offer the opportunity for overtime to the most senior employee available (promoting equal distribution of overtime).

3. Other Benefits

- (a) Statutory Holidays - Article 14, and Appendix I Article 14.01, shall apply for temporary employees effective April 10, 1996.
- (b) Annual Leave - Temporary employees will accumulate annual leave based on all regular shifts worked (Clause 17:01 (b) (4), exclusive of overtime. The Employer also agrees to permit temporary Correctional Officers who are laid off to be paid for any accumulated annual leave based on the appropriate rate established in the Correctional Officers' Collective Agreement. This shall be effective April 10, 1996 with any vacation pay and annual leave otherwise taken or paid in the interim to be deducted from the accumulation.

Temporaries can avail of annual leave they have accumulated when there is another temporary available to cover.

- (c) Family Responsibility Leave - Temporary employees will be credited Family Responsibility Leave on a pro-rata basis based on regular shifts worked, exclusive of overtime.
- (d) Pensions - Temporary Employees are obligated to participate in the Government Money Pension Plan. This pension plan has been designed to address the circumstances surrounding Temporary/Casual Employees' employment.
- (e) Insurance - Temporary employees, if hired for a period of more than three months, are covered under the Group Insurance program from the first day of employment. Employees who are hired for a period of less than three months, who receive notice of extension to at least six months, are required to participate from the date of notification

Dear Mr. King:

Re: Pension Plan Saving Associated with CPP Changes

The parties acknowledge that changes have been made to the Canada Pension Plan (CPP). These changes include equal increases in future contributions for both employees and Government. Likewise, benefits paid from the CPP will increase. These changes are phased in starting in 2019 and will be fully implemented in 2025.

The current provisions of the Uniform Services Pension Plan (USPP) are integrated with the old CPP provisions. Without modifying the USPP, the contributions and benefits of the combined USPP and CPP would be greater than the parties' obligations under the current USPP plan design.

As a result, the parties agree to the following:

- Government and USPP members will accept equal reductions to USPP contributions and reductions to USPP future benefits, in order to maintain the same level of pension benefits for the current combined USPP and CPP pensions.
- Contribution and benefit accrual changes only apply to future service. Past service benefits accrued will be maintained under prior formula up until the changeover date.

Sincerely,

Lisa Curran

After such review has been completed, the Committee will make recommendations to both parties for their consideration and approval.

Dear Mr. King:

Re: Statutory Holiday Replacement

Each year, an employee shall be entitled to designate replacement statutory holiday(s) that are days of cultural or religious significance to the employee in place of any or all of the statutory holidays outlined in the collective agreement. The Employer will endeavor to accommodate such requests and such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

For the purposes of this letter, cultural or religious significance shall be defined as: A day in which a religious observation is held or a day that celebrates the culture of a particular nation, people, or other social group.

The Employee shall inform the Employer of their choice(s), in writing, prior to November 15 in the calendar year before the new designations take effect. Such notice shall state clearly which statutory holiday(s) the employee is replacing and which day(s) of cultural or religious significance, including the dates on which they occur, that they are designating in the stead of the replaced statutory holiday(s).

Where the specific date(s) of cultural or religious significance are not yet confirmed on or before November 15th in the calendar year before the new designations take effect, the Employee will notify the Employer of the day(s) of significance and will provide date(s) as soon as they become available. The Employer will endeavor to accommodate such requests received after November 15th in the calendar year before the new designations take effect, subject to operational requirements and availability of replacement staff. Requests will not be unreasonably denied.

Such statutory holiday replacement, once designated, will not be amendable for the applicable calendar year. The Employer will grant the newly designated holiday(s) as paid day(s) off. Once designated per the above process, the newly named holiday(s) shall be the day(s) to which all rights which are normally associated with the specific statutory holiday being replaced are now applied:

- (a) The newly designated holiday days will attract all benefits of the collective agreement as if that day were the actual statutory holiday that they are designated to replace.
- (b) The replaced statutory holiday(s) will become a regular day, whether it be a workday or a day of rest, and will not attract any additional benefit previously attributable to it as a statutory holiday: all such benefits will have transferred to the designated replacement day(s).

- (c) Where the Employer does not provide service on a day described under b) above, and where the employee is scheduled to work on that day of the week, the Employer will make reasonable efforts to provide meaningful work to the employee on that day.
- (d) Where the employer is unable to provide meaningful work on that day, the employee may access vacation, banked overtime, or other like paid banks to cover the missed day of work.

Dear Mr. King:

Re: Public Health Emergency

The Employer recognizes that public health emergencies may have an impact on overall government operations and service delivery, individual employees, and the residents of Newfoundland and Labrador.

The Employer further recognizes that not all public health emergencies will require the same emergency response requirements and/or public health directives and will require an evaluation of such response based on the nature of the emergency. Notwithstanding the foregoing, general principles will apply to impacted employees in the event of a public health emergency.

1) Self-Isolation

Employees directed by their Employer or Public Health – Department of Health and Community Services to self-isolate, and who are asymptomatic of a public health illness may (where applicable - this may be dependent on vaccination or other considerations deemed appropriate by the Employer) be placed on special leave with pay for the hours in which they are unable to report to work up to a maximum of seventy-five (75) hours per year. Employees who work less than full time hours will receive the benefit on a pro-rata basis. Temporary call-in employees who are not prescheduled, will be permitted to take special leave with pay on shifts they would have received in normal circumstances (compared to next junior temporary call-in).

Employees will not be required to provide medical documentation for this period of hours, unless there is sufficient reason on the part of the Employer to request such documentation.

All other absences require employees to utilize their leave entitlements until they return to work.

2) Remote Work

Employees may be required to work remotely where the capability exists and it is operationally feasible. Special leave with pay shall only be utilized in instances where remote work is not an option.

3) Use of Sick Leave

Employees who exhibit symptoms of a public health illness and who cannot work remotely, are required to use their sick leave entitlement until they return to work. Functional Abilities Information related to accommodation requests, extensions, illness unrelated to the current public health emergency, use of long-term sick leave and attendance support planning may still be required.

4) Re-Deployment

The Parties recognize that the Employer may be required to redeploy human resources to ensure adequate and safe staffing levels, and such re-deployment shall be done in consultation with the Union.

The parties further agree to enter into agreements as necessary to address other issues arising from a public health emergency that may not be covered by this letter.
