MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Re: Nurses Committee

The parties acknowledge that the Registered Nurses' Union Newfoundland and Labrador (RNUNL) have indicated that they have issues of concern unique to Nurses who live and work in Labrador and that the RNUNL will attempt to address these concerns through a committee which will be established subsequent to these negotiations.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Re: Labrador Benefits Agreement - Interpretation

In an effort to clarify the interpretation of certain items contained in the Labrador Benefits Agreement the parties agree to the following:

- 1) Article 4.2(b) refers to employees who terminate employment, (i.e. are not on layoff status and do not have recall rights). These employees have their Travel Allowance paid out based on the hours worked in the current year and it shall be paid out at the rate in effect on the date employment is terminated.
- 2) For the purposes of Article 4.4 it is agreed that an employee may refuse to claim the employee benefit if it is to their benefit to have their spouse claim them as a dependant. Employees who exercise this option will not be entitled to any portion of the Employee Travel Allowance. It is incumbent on the employee to communicate this choice to their respective Employer(s).
- 3) Notwithstanding Schedule A, the following employee shall be entitled, on a without prejudice basis, to the rates applicable to Mud Lake as long as they remain within the employ of their current Employer and continue to permanently reside in Mud Lake:
Vyann Kerby, Health Labrador Corporation

This agreement is effective from April 1, 2013 and shall expire upon the renewal of the Labrador Benefits Agreement expiring March 31, 2016.

- 4) For the purposes of clarification and in accordance with Article 3.1 (Labrador Allowance), Article 4.1 (Travel Allowance) and Article 9.1 (Definitions), benefits are applicable for the fiscal year (April 1 to March 31) in which a dependent reaches 18 years of age or 24 years of age, if the dependent is in full time attendance at a school or post-secondary institution. Full time attendance shall be determined by the educational institution in which a dependent is registered.

For example:

If a dependent reaches 18 years of age on January 1, 2011 and is no longer enrolled as a full time student in a post secondary institution, they would be eligible for the travel benefit payable April 15, 2011.

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is a joint program of the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador and its unions/associations. The purpose of the program is to provide employees and their dependants with an opportunity to access professional counseling services. The program is also intended to act as a supportive resource to employees and managers throughout government and agencies who have been deemed as participants in the program.

A cornerstone of the EAP is confidentiality with respect to all matters associated with professional services to clients. The EAP Coordinators demonstrate respect for the trust and confidence placed in them by clients. This is accomplished by protecting the privacy of client information and respecting the clients right to control when or whether this information will be shared with third parties as outlined in the EAP Roles, Responsibilities and Operating Procedures. The general expectation that EAP Coordinators keep information confidential does not apply when there is a professional duty or obligation to disclose information where there is serious, imminent, or foreseeable harm to a client, employee, or others. This caution is explained to the employee at the earliest possible opportunity.

Nothing in this statement or policy is to be interpreted as constituting a waiver of management's right to take disciplinary measures, nor the union's right to grieve within the framework of the Collective Agreement.

BASIC PRINCIPLES

The Unions/Associations and the Employer, recognize that personal problems, which are affecting or which may affect work performance, can be addressed effectively when identified early and when referral is made to an appropriate source of help.

For employees who participate in the EAP, sick leave may be granted, on the same basis as is granted for other health problems. Consideration could also be given for the use of annual leave or leave without pay.

Employees are assured that their job future and standing with the Employer will not be jeopardized by their participation in the Program.

The EAP encourages employees to seek help voluntarily.

Wherever the need exists and where they feel it would be advantageous to the employee, management reserves the right to encourage employees to attend the program.

The Committee oversees the operation of this Program.

This Program applies to employees and their dependents, who have been deemed as participants in the program. The Program applies to all employees, and former employees, for the period of one year from their last date of employment.

In the event that a group of employees are concerned that the help of the EAP should be offered to an immediate supervisor, established procedures should be followed to advise the next level of management of this concern.

The responsibilities of:

- Co-ordinators and/ or the Director
 - a) To thoroughly understand and consistently apply the principles of the EAP.

 - f) A cornerstone of the EAP is confidentiality with respect to all matters associated with professional services to clients. The EAP Coordinators demonstrate respect for the trust and confidence placed in them by clients, by protecting the privacy of client information and respecting the clients right to control when or whether this information will be shared with third parties. The general expectation that EAP

Coordinators will keep information confidential does not apply when there is a professional duty or obligation to disclose information, or where there is serious, imminent, or foreseeable harm to a client, employee, or others. This caution will be explained to the employee at the earliest possible opportunity.

- Managers/supervisors

- d) To provide support to the employee during their participation in the EAP.

- Employee

The responsibilities of the individual employee who is a participant in the EAP are:

- a) To have knowledge of the EAP.
- b) To actively participate in the EAP.

EAP REFERRAL PROCEDURES

Employees may access EAP through:

1. Self Referral:

A self referral is a referral made by the employee on their own behalf. All employees can seek assistance on a voluntary basis by contacting an EAP Co-ordinator of the Program. When a self-initiated referral requires outside treatment, and/or time away from the workplace, it is the employee's responsibility to notify the supervisor (or other personnel as required) to request leave or other arrangements.

2. Workplace Assisted Referral:

Where the manager and/or supervisor of an employee or another manager may identify an individual in the workplace is in need of support and counselling, they may recommend contact with the EAP. The manager or supervisor is not provided with any information regarding contact unless the employee provides consent and the EAP Coordinator agrees that it is in the individual's best interest to share information.

3. Formal Referral

A formal referral to EAP normally occurs at a point when work performance issues have been identified by the manager or supervisor to the employee. The employee is provided with a letter outlining the issues of concern within the workplace and offered the option of EAP support to assist in addressing the concern. Participation in the EAP Program is voluntary, whether it is through self referral on one's own initiative, or through formal referral by the manager. The employee maintains the right to confidentiality throughout their involvement in the EAP. Nothing of a confidential nature is discussed between the coordinator and the manager.

The EAP coordinator has a duty to provide confirmation of whether an employee is participating in a treatment program and attendance when this information is requested from the manager. The manager is responsible for maintaining contact with the EAP coordinator to confirm the employee is participating and attending the program. They are also responsible for offering the employee support throughout the process. During the time the employee is in the program, the EAP Coordinator maintains contact with the employee and outside helping agency.

When an employee's work performance becomes unsatisfactory, the supervisor's first response should be to provide the employee with feedback on performance and to clarify what is expected.

If the unsatisfactory job performance persists, the supervisor or manager shall consult with the Human Resources Manager or Director or their designate to review the employee's performance before making a formal referral to the Employee Assistance Program. The employee has the right to have union representation at any meeting where there is a human resources manager and departmental manager present to discuss concerns related to unsatisfactory work performance. The employee is advised of the following:

- a) The consequences of continuing the present unsatisfactory work pattern may lead to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.
- b) The Employee Assistance Program is in place and how it operates.
- c) The employee is given a choice between accepting referral to the Employee Assistance Program or not.
- d) The employee is expected to keep the appointment and to participate in the program

CONFIDENTIALITY

All persons working with clients of the EAP (e.g., medical personnel administrators, co-ordinators, counsellors, and support staff) are prohibited from disclosing any information unless consent of the individual employee is obtained. There are specific circumstances whereby confidentiality cannot be guaranteed between the coordinator and client. These circumstances include situations whereby there is a professional duty of the coordinator to release information. This caution will be explained to the employee at the earliest possible opportunity.

EAP files shall be handled with the greatest degree of confidentiality. Names shall not be used on these files or on the working notes contained in them. Other means of identification such as codes/numbers/letters will be used.

EAP files and working notes shall be retained in a secure and restricted area and shall be destroyed according to the Records, Retention, and Disposal Schedule as per the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador Records Management guidelines. The confidential file of the EAP shall be available for inspection by the employee at any reasonable time.

When an employee is referred by the E.A.P. Co-ordinator to an appointed external service provider, sufficient information shall be released to that individual in order that they may provide the most appropriate counselling service to the employee.

FOLLOW-UP

At the discretion and professional assessment of the EAP Coordinator, follow up contact will be made by the coordinator to the employee.

CONCLUSION

The success of an Employee Assistance Program rests with a commitment from the Employer and the Unions/Associations in providing employees with an offer of help. This commitment can be realized only through the actions of the Employer's managers at all levels, and the Unions/Associations representatives for the workplace. Likewise, the employee's willingness to participate in the Program is essential.

Employee Assistance Programs are now widely accepted as beneficial to the employee and the Employer. The employee is offered and encouraged to accept help for problems that seriously affect their work, well-being, and family. The Employer benefits by retaining its employees in the work force so that their skills and knowledge are not lost.

The early use of EAP policies and procedures can contribute significantly to the prevention of serious mental health or workplace performance problems among employees.

4. The Classification Appeal Adjudicator shall be an independent position created within the Public Service Commission.
5. The Classification Appeal Adjudicator is hereby empowered to receive, hear and decide upon any appeal consistent with these procedures.
6. Changes in these procedures shall be recommended for approval only after co-ordination with the Public Service Commission, and the Treasury Board Secretariat.
7. The Classification Appeal Adjudicator may render decisions based on the information provided or may hold hearings if deemed necessary. The appellant may be required to appear at any time and in any place in the province deemed desirable.
8. 9. The Classification Appeal Adjudicator has the right to refuse to receive or hear an appeal if it considers that the grounds on which the appeal was submitted are irrelevant or not in accordance with Sections 1 and 2 of Part B.
10. The employing organization concerned shall allow time off from regular duties to any employee who is required by the Classification Appeal Adjudicator to appear before them and, in respect of such absence; the employee shall be regarded as being O.H.M.S. It is the responsibility of the employee to obtain the prior approval of the permanent head before absenting themselves from their duties for this purpose.
11. On receipt of an appeal from an employee or a group of employees, the Classification Appeal Adjudicator may request the Classification & Organizational Design Division to assemble all pertinent information prepared as a result of the classification review, a copy of which will be provided to the appellant and the immediate supervisor by the Classification Appeal Adjudicator.

15. Where in the opinion of the Classification Appeal Adjudicator a group of appellants' position description questionnaires are sufficiently similar, have identical ratings and the appellants are employed in the same classification by the same organization, the Adjudicator may propose the consolidation of individual appeals to those appellants such that the appeals of individuals may be decided upon in a group appeal.

17. Where not all appellants agree to consolidation, the Classification Appeal Adjudicator will first decide on a consolidated basis the appeals of those appellants who are in agreement with consolidation. Those appellants not in agreement shall be provided an opportunity for individual review, as soon as practical following the determination of a consolidated appeal.
18. When the Classification Appeal Adjudicator renders a decision on those factors challenged on the basis of the written documentation, notification of such decision on those factors challenged shall be forwarded to the Classification & Organizational Design Division. The Classification & Organizational Design Division will notify and provide the necessary authority to the employing agency as well as provide a copy of the Classification Appeal Adjudicator's decision and the impact, if any, on the position to the appellant and their designate.
19. If a hearing is warranted, the appellant, a permanent head or management designate and a representative of Classification & Organizational Design Division may be requested to appear before the Classification Appeal Adjudicator.
20. Appellants are to be given two opportunities to postpone appeal hearings after which appeals will then be withdrawn by the Classification Appeal Adjudicator.

21. The hearing will be presided over by the Classification Appeal Adjudicator who will retain control over the conduct of the hearing and who will rule on the relevancy of any questions raised by any of the parties.
22. The Classification Appeal Adjudicator may adjourn the hearing and order the appearance of any person or party who, at the Classification Appeal Adjudicator's discretion, it deems necessary to appear to give information or to clarify any issue raised during the hearing.
23. Following the conclusion of the hearing, the Classification Appeal Adjudicator will deliberate on and consider all relevant evidence and supporting information. Within fifteen (15) working days of reaching a decision, the Classification Appeal Adjudicator shall inform the Classification & Organizational Design Division in writing over the signature of the Classification Appeal Adjudicator of their decision on those factors challenged and a detailed explanation of the rationale of any change from the Classification & Organizational Design Division's original determination. The Classification & Organizational Design Division will notify and provide the necessary authority to the employing agency as well as provide a copy of the Classification Appeal Adjudicator's decision and the impact, if any, on the position to the appellant and their designate.
24. The Classification Appeal Adjudicator is required to submit written reasons to the Classification & Organizational Design Division for those decisions that result in changes in the factors challenged.
25. The impacts of changes in ratings arising from decisions of the Classification Appeal Adjudicator shall be processed by the Classification & Organizational Design Division in accordance with the Treasury Board Secretariat's compensation policies.
26. The decision of the Classification Appeal Adjudicator on an appeal is final and binding on the parties to the appeal.
27. An appeal shall be regarded as closed:
 - when a decision is rendered thereon by the Classification Appeal Adjudicator;
 - if the appellant requests in writing the withdrawal of the appeal;
 - in the event an employee is dismissed with cause; or
 - if the appellant postpones a hearing in accordance with Section 20 of Part C.

Dear Mr. King:

Re: Statutory Holiday Replacement

Each year, an employee shall be entitled to designate replacement statutory holiday(s) that are days of cultural or religious significance to the employee in place of any or all of the statutory holidays outlined in the collective agreement. The Employer will endeavor to accommodate such requests and such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

For the purposes of this letter, cultural or religious significance shall be defined as: A day in which a religious observation is held or a day that celebrates the culture of a particular nation, people, or other social group.

The Employee shall inform the Employer of their choice(s), in writing, prior to November 15 in the calendar year before the new designations take effect. Such notice shall state clearly which statutory holiday(s) the employee is replacing and which day(s) of cultural or religious significance, including the dates on which they occur, that they are designating in the stead of the replaced statutory holiday(s).

Where the specific date(s) of cultural or religious significance are not yet confirmed on or before November 15th in the calendar year before the new designations take effect, the Employee will notify the Employer of the day(s) of significance and will provide date(s) as soon as they become available. The Employer will endeavor to accommodate such requests received after November 15th in the calendar year before the new designations take effect, subject to operational requirements and availability of replacement staff. Requests will not be unreasonably be denied.

Such statutory holiday replacement, once designated, will not be amendable for the applicable calendar year. The Employer will grant the newly designated holiday(s) as paid day(s) off. Once designated per the above process, the newly named holiday(s) shall be the day(s) to which all rights which are normally associated with the specific statutory holiday being replaced are now applied:

- (a) The newly designated holiday days will attract all benefits of the collective agreement as if that day were the actual statutory holiday that they are designated to replace.

- (b) The replaced statutory holiday(s) will become a regular day, whether it be a workday or a day of rest, and will not attract any additional benefit previously attributable to it as a statutory holiday: all such benefits will have transferred to the designated replacement day(s).
- (c) Where the Employer does not provide service on a day described under (b) above, and where the employee is scheduled to work on that day of the week, the Employer will make reasonable efforts to provide meaningful work to the employee on that day.
- (d) Where the employer is unable to provide meaningful work on that day, the employee may access vacation, banked overtime, or other like paid banks to cover the missed day of work.

Sincerely,

Amy Collins

Dear Mr. King:

Re: Public Health Emergency

The Employer recognizes that public health emergencies may have an impact on overall government operations and service delivery, individual employees, and the residents of Newfoundland and Labrador.

The Employer further recognizes that not all public health emergencies will require the same emergency response requirements and/or public health directives and will require an evaluation of such response based on the nature of the emergency. Notwithstanding the foregoing, general principles will apply to impacted employees in the event of a public health emergency.

1) Self-Isolation

Employees directed by their Employer or Public Health – Department of Health and Community Services to self-isolate, and who are asymptomatic of a public health illness may (where applicable - this may be dependent on vaccination or other considerations deemed appropriate by the Employer) be placed on special leave with pay for the hours in which they are unable to report to work up to a maximum of seventy- five (75) hours per year. Employees who work less than full time hours will receive the benefit on a pro-rata basis. Temporary call-in employees who are not prescheduled, will be permitted to take special leave with pay on shifts they would have received in normal circumstances (compared to next junior temporary call-in).

Employees will not be required to provide medical documentation for this period of hours, unless there is sufficient reason on the part of the Employer to request such documentation.

All other absences require employees to utilize their leave entitlements until they return to work.

2) Remote Work

Employees may be required to work remotely where the capability exists and it is operationally feasible. Special leave with pay shall only be utilized in instances where remote work is not an option.

3) Use of Sick Leave

Employees who exhibit symptoms of a public health illness and who cannot work remotely, are required to use their sick leave entitlement until they return to work. Functional Abilities Information related to accommodation requests, extensions, illness unrelated to the current public health emergency, use of long-term sick leave and attendance support planning may still be required.

4) Re-Deployment

The Parties recognize that the Employer may be required to redeploy human resources to ensure adequate and safe staffing levels, and such re-deployment shall be done in consultation with the Union.

The parties further agree to enter into agreements as necessary to address other issues arising from a public health emergency that may not be covered by this letter.
